Memorare to St. Joseph

Remember, O most pure spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, my great protector, Saint Joseph, that no one ever had recourse to your protection, or implored your aid without obtaining relief. Confiding therefore in your goodness, I come before you. Do not turn down my petitions, foster father of the Redeemer, but graciously receive them. Amen.

Our Faithful Departed

Joe Starr
Michael O'Donnell
John Flannery
May They Rest In Peace. Amen.

Amoris Laetitia – The Joy of Love (2016 – 2021) Pope Francis

In the Light of the World

The Bible is full of families, births, love stories and family crises. This is true from the very first page, with the appearance of Adam and Eve's family with all its burden of violence but also its enduring strength (Cf. Gn 4) to its very last page, where we behold the wedding feast of the Bride and the Lamb. (Rv 12:2, 9). Jesus' description of the two houses, one built on rock and the other on sand (cf. Mt7:24-27), symbolises any number of family situations shaped by the exercise of the members' freedom, for, as the poet says, 'every home is a lampstand'.

Life Lessons

During our parish priest's sermon, a large plant fell over right behind the pulpit, crashing to the ground. Acknowledging his reputation for long-windedness, he smiled sheepishly and said, "Well, that's the first time I actually put a plant to sleep."

Life in the Spirit Seminars

Starting Soon in Nenagh

Nenagh Parish in conjunction with local Holy Spirit Charismatic Renewal is planning to relay a series of seven seminars from St. Mary of the Rosary church via the Parish Radio and Webcam. This will facilitate more people to avail of Baptism in the Spirit at this time when we cannot gather in church or other meeting places. The seminars will be held each Tuesday at 7pm for seven consecutive weeks (commencement date to be announced). More details in next week's newsletter.
