Synodal Pathway

For a synodal Church:
communion, participation and mission.

Below is the first in an occasional series on the forthcoming Synodal Assembly of Bishops in Ireland

On 10 March 2021, the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference announced a new Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland leading to the holding of a National Synodal Assembly within the next five years. Since Pope Francis hosted the 2018 Ordinary General Assembly of Bishops in Rome, on the theme of Young People, the Faith and Vocational Discernment, bishops in Ireland have been giving active consideration to calling a National Synodal Assembly for the local Church here. Conversations at local, regional and national level have informed the work of a dedicated subgroup of the Bishops' Conference which was established to further explore this idea. During their 2020 Winter General Meeting, bishops decided to proceed along a synodal pathway, and, since then, have been assisted and greatly encouraged by Cardinal Mario Grech and Sr Natalie Becquart, of the General Secretariat for the Synod of Bishops in Rome. Cardinal Grech and Sr Becquart addressed the Irish Bishops on the theme of synodality on 3 February 2021.

OUR DIOCESAN SAFEGUARDING PRAYER

Lord, our God, Look with favour on our children whom we as a Church commend to your tender care.

Your Son, gladly welcomed little children.

He took them in his arms, blessed them, and held them up as an example for us all. We pray that you, Father, will also send your blessing upon all of us gathered here this day, so that we may play our part in helping our children to grow in Christ, and by the power of the Holy Spirit, may they become Christ's witnesses in a world which craves their energy, light and generosity.

Allow us to create environments where children, clergy and parish ministers flourish and minister to each other in a spirit of light, love and joy.

We also beg your pardon for the times we have failed in this ministry. We remember those who have been hurt and those who are hurting, may your healing be a source of strength and comfort to them and their families.

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen Lord, we thank you for the gift of our children; they are our light and our joy.

Give us wisdom to guide them, patience to teach them, and a desire to encourage them always. As we strive to love them sincerely, may we never betray their trust, dampen their hope, or discourage their spirit.

May we help them achieve their potential and fulfill your dreams for them.

May your grace and love fall gently upon them giving them the inner strength, peace and patience they will need for the journey ahead.

And as we strive to create safe environments where we can freely minister to them, may we be open to you ministering to us in and through them. Amen
