Synod – A Reflection
 How the church is called to witness to the gospel while accompanying the people of our time on their journey is not through nostalgia for the influence or privilege. It almost certainly involves being reconciled to the status of a minority, which so often entails the Way of the Cross. It will require humility and conversion of heart, a call which Pope Francis has issued to the church in initiating this Synodal Pathway.

Thought for the Day

The question raised in today's gospel is never out of date or out of season. It is perfectly natural to think of our neighbour as literally the people next door, people 'like us' as we say. But that is to stay well within our comfort zone and, as Jesus puts it sharply elsewhere, '...even the Gentiles love those who love them'. Far more is demanded, especially in today's context of spiralling migration, with all its challenges of finance, housing, income, education of the young, work for the able and so forth. While bearing in mind the practical and social consequences, the whole thrust of the Gospel passage is to see my neighbour as any fellow human being in need.

St. Benedict (480 – 547) – Feast Day Monday July 11th

After living a life as a hermit at Subiaco, founded the monastery of Monte Casino. His rule, observed by Benedictines and Cistercians, is distinguished by its wisdom and balance and those who live by it did much to shape the Europe of today. Named Patron of Europe in 1964. The Rule of St. Benedict has provided a sure spiritual guide for countless numbers of monks. We are blessed to have a Cistercian community in our diocese Mount St. Joseph's Monastery, Roscrea whom we keep in our prayers as we celebrate St. Benedict.

Prayer for Mary's Meals

Our Father, give us this day our daily bread and forgive us for the times when we take more than our share of the bread that belongs to all. Let us help You fill the starving with good things, not with scraps from our table. Teach us how to share what is not ours to keep. Clothe us with Your love that we may complete each good work You created us to do. Place in our hearts Your compassion for each starving child and use our little acts of love so that they starve no more. Amen.
