FR LEO LONG - AN APPRECIATION

Michael Leo Long was a native of Scariff parish born on 10th April 1929. He studied in St. Flannan's College from 1941 to 1946. He undertook studies for the priesthood in St. Patrick's College, Carlow from 1946 to 1952. He was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Joseph Rodgers in St. Flannan's College, Ennis on the 8th of June 1952 along with his brother Fr. Jackie (John) Long. Fr Leo was ordained for the Archdiocese of Melbourne, Australia.

From 1952 until 1967 he served as assistant priest in the parishes of Newport, Gordon, North Dandenong and South Melbourne. In 1967 he was appointed parish priest of the parish of St. Peter Julian Eymard, Mooroolbark. In 1972 he became parish priest of the parish of St. Fidelis, Moreland. In 1982 he was appointed parish priest of St. Kevin's Ormond. He returned to the Diocese of Killaloe in 1991. He served in Killaloe parish from 1991 to 1992. In Kilmurry McMahon parish from 1992 to 2000. In the Silvermines and Templederry parishes from 2000 to 2004. In 2004 he was appointed administrator of Templederry parish. In 2006 he became assistant priest in Templederry. He retired to Nenagh in 2017. He spent his final months in Carrigoran nursing home, Newmarket on Fergus. He died on the 19th October 2022. May He Rest in Peace.

Annual Killaloe Diocesan In-Service

The priests of the diocese will be on annual diocesan in-service in Loughrea from Sunday evening November 6th to Wednesday lunch time November 9th. This is a very important time for priests to be together and engage in on-going personal and skill development. It is hoped that all priests in active ministry would be completely free from pastoral engagements during this time. A panel of retired priests have kindly agreed to provide emergency cover during these days, should the need arise. In the unlikely event where this cover might not be available it would be appreciated if funerals could be suspended until the priest returns on Wednesday afternoon. In parishes where training has taken place a community led liturgy will replace the daily Mass.

This Week We Offer A Special Prayer For...

Those Experiencing Grief

For all those who woke this morning to the loneliness of bereavement – the empty bed or chair, an unaccustomed quietness, a life now incomplete – may they know your presence in the stillness of the day, and through the love of friends who offer their condolence. And in the darker moments may they reach out to hold your hand and feel the warmth of the One who has already passed from death to life to welcome others into God's Kingdom. Amen.
